

THIRTY FIRST YEAR

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 1, 1920.

NUMBER 13.

EVERYBODY

Should Attend Chautauqua.

BEGINS TOMORROW.

Come along next Friday July 2nd, to the Redpath Chautauqua tent at the school grounds. It is entirely new this year, rectangular in shape, holding from 800 to 1000 people; the seats are new too and so is the program. It might surprise you, but it is the truth, the Chautauqua management has spent $340 more a week for the talent alone than has been spent on any previous year. If you live in Lancaster or its vicinity do come to the Chautauqua and enjoy the entire program which is extended from July 2d to the 7th, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock at night. It will be of great benefit to you personally as you will be privileged to hear the ablest of speakers, men with nation wide experience and renown and not only will you hear lectures, but you will also be greatly entertained with high class music, elocution, impersonations and other features which will all have a part in making this Chautauqua season pleasant and uplifting to the entire community. Fathers and mothers! Send your children to the Chautauqua, they will see and hear things there that will be of great aid to them in their future life problems. Do come yourselves, for by so doing, you will come in touch with the big world around you, perhaps you will learn something about others, which you never knew before. In fact, my friend, what is life worth if it wasn't for the privilege we have in learning about or doing something for others. The Chautauqua people are giving their time and thought for this community. They are living for others. Let you and I go to the Chautauqua and meet these people who have come with a message to us from other parts of this world. Let us all plan together how we can better the conditions of our town that it might grow not only contentedly but that it might become a place where you and I and everybody else can live happily together.

The program is as follows:

First Afternoon—Introductory Exercises. Grand concert—Premier Singers and Players Company.

First Night—Concert—Premier Singers and Players Company. Lecture—"The Man of the New Age"—Dr. George L. Parker.

Second Afternoon—Concert—Hippie Concert Company. Lecture—"Unseen Forces"—Judge Manford Schoonover.

Second Night—Grand Concert—Hippie Concert Company.

Third Afternoon—Grand Concert—The American Girls.

Third Night—Concert—The American Girls. Lecture—Thomas Brooks Fletcher.

Fourth Afternoon—Concert—Red Grenadiers Band and Male Chorus. Lecture—"Jean Baptiste and His Brethren"—Wallace Bruce Amshary.

Fourth Night—Grand Concert—Red Grenadiers Band and Male Chorus.

Fifth Afternoon—Concert—Rich-Werno Entertainers. Children's Pageant, "The Good Fairy Thrift".

Fifth Night—Concert—Rich-Werno Entertainers. Joy Night Program—Popular Character Impersonations—Nonah Beilharz.

Be sure and get your season ticket before Friday evening.

Adults—$2.50 including war tax. Children $1.25, including war tax.

Children's Hour.

All you children are invited to the Chautauqua tent, which will be at the school grounds. There will be a young lady there to tell stories to you. She will select a few from among you, whom she will instruct to give a little play on the last afternoon of the Chautauqua season, called the "Good Fairy Thrift". It will all be free, you will not even need to get the costumes as they will be furnished by the Redpath Chautauqua. Come at nine o'clock Friday morning. Listen! Don't come alone, but bring the boy or girl next door to you. Let's all come and have a good time together.

Sunday School

At Freedom.

Sunday School began at Freedom last Sunday. Everybody invited. As many of the church members as can, is asked to meet at Freedom next Sunday on important business. Meeting called at 10 a. m.

STANFORD

To Be Hosts Of Ex-SERVICE Men Next Monday.

Every service man in Lancaster county is earnestly requested to be in Lancaster next Monday morning by not later than eleven o'clock prepared to go to Stanford as the guest of the Casswell Stanley Post of the American Legion, where an elaborate program has been arranged.

This bids to be one of the big things of the season and it would be little less than criminal for any ex-service man in Garrard county to miss it.

The Herald Sanford Post will go in a body, but they are just as anxious for all former soldiers to come, even if he is not a member of the Legion. It will be a great July 4th, celebration and the exercises will begin promptly at 12:45, so it is important that all meet in Lancaster by eleven o'clock. Automobiles will be provided for all soldiers.

The following program will be rendered:

Band Concert—12-15
Address—Judge James P. Gregory, of Louisville, Kentucky.

Reading—Miss Esther Whitley Burch
Address—Ector Sanford, representing the Herald Sanford Post, Lancaster, Kentucky.

Box of candy to the best looking lady on the grounds.

Prize to the Prettiest Baby under three years of age.

Races—100 yd dash, free to all.

Hot man race, 200 pounds to enter.

Shark race, free to all.

Barrel race, free to all.

Wheelbarrow race, free to all.

Egg race, free to all.

Base ball game—The Casswell Stanley Post vs. Mt. Vernon.

Fire Works Display at 8 P. M.

BAND CONCERT

Large Crowd Entertained Last Monday Night.

A very good crowd attended the Band Concert at the Opera House last Monday night, given by the Lancaster Concert Band and for their benefit. The proceeds amounted to about twenty six dollars and should have been much larger. The entertainment was worth twice the price of the admission charged. This worthy organization should have the whole and hearty support of every citizen of the county. They have worked hard for the past six months or more and are making a reputation throughout the state they richly deserve. The proceeds of the concert goes to a fund for buying uniforms, which at the present high cost of living, comes very high at this time. Go so it boys we are proud of you.

JETT FARM

Taken Down At $325.

Col. Jim Hamilton Says Its Worth More and He'll Get It For This Splendid Price.

Col. James I. Hamilton, the big land dealer of Garrard County, "took down" his first farm in his real estate history when he refused to sell the Shelby Jett farm of 309 acres for the bid of $325 an acre at public sale near Kirksville Wednesday. Col. Hamilton said this farm is worth more than the bid offered and he would sell it for more and therefore wouldn't accept the $325 per acre offered by a Garrard bidder.

Covington Jett was the contending bidder for his father's old home place but stopped at $320 an acre. A big crowd was present and much interest was manifested.

The Jett farm is one of the best known in that section of Madison county, where high prices is the rule rather than the exception. Col. Hamilton knows land values mighty well and his many friends feel satisfied that he will make good on his promise to sell this fine farm for more money than the high bid Wednesday.—Richmond Register.

Col. Swinebroad's Band

The Lancaster Band furnished the music for the Swinebroad sale today. Some of the members of the band are only twelve years old but they are wonders. The band was the best one heard here in a long while. The Lancaster boys are to be congratulated.—Danville Advocate.

DEMOCRATIC

CONVENTION

Under Full Sway. Cox and McAdoo Running Neck and Neck.

The Democratic National Convention at San Francisco met last Tuesday, and listened to the "keynote" speech of Homer S. Cummings who praised Democratic achievements under Wilson, scored incompetency of the Republican Congress, rebuked attacks upon the President, and pleaded for the adoption of the League of Nations.

A tremendous demonstration for the President, in which all but the New York delegates took part, featured the opening session.

Administration forces have demonstrated their control of the convention by naming the Permanent Chairman and the head of the Resolutions Committee.

Despite his request that his name not be presented to the convention, William G. McAdoo is running strong for the Presidential nomination, though it is agreed that no candidate can secure even a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot. Two thirds are necessary to nominate. Cox and Palmer are the leading rivals of the former Secretary of the Treasury, but press dispatches from Frisco are practically a unit in declaring that Palmer's greatest strength will be registered in the early balloting, and his chances of being nominated are negligible.

Prohibition, the League of Nations and the Irish question are the most likely subjects of dispute in the platform.

Mr. Hylan has made public the planks he will offer. The one relating to prohibition induces the Federal Amendment and the Volstead Act, while the League plank urges ratification of the Treaty at the earliest date possible upon the best terms that the Democrats can secure in the Senate.

Latest Convention News

As we go to press no definite action has been taken at Frisco by the Democrats. A certain forecast is that W. J. Bryan will be defeated in his effort to get a 'bone dry' plank in the platform and that the party will pledge itself to a reasonable and sane enforcement of the prohibition laws. The League of Nations plank will be no evasion or straddle but positive endorsement of the League and Treaty of Peace as presented to the Senate. In other words it is reported that that plank will be as the President wants it without the crossing of a "T" or the dotting of an "i".

The following are placed in nomination, McAdoo, Cox, Palmer, Meredith, Hitchcock, Gerard, Owen, Smith, Cummings, Davis and Edwards.

The name of Governor Cox was greeted with great demonstrations and his friends think his chances are better than was reported at the opening of the convention. The big boom for McAdoo has subsided and the wise ones think his chances for the prize are waning. It is any body's game at this stage with many looking with great favor upon the Chairman of the National Committee, Homer Cummings.

The convention is now ready for the consideration of the platform the draft having been practically completed. The balloting for the presidential nominee will likely begin tonight or early tomorrow.

SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

To Open Next Monday, July 5th.

All of the rural schools of the county, with the exception of the Paint Lick and the Buena Vista consolidated schools, will open next Monday morning, July 5th, according to information given us by Miss Jennie Higgins, Garrard County's School Superintendent.

The last legislature passed a law which goes into effect immediately, requiring every county in the state to employ a truant officer, whose duties it will be to see that every child in the county, within the school age, attends some school. This officer will be on duty next week and the parents of these school children must see to it that their children be on hand promptly, or the truant officer will get them if they don't watch out.

MONTH OF JUNE

Proves a Record-Breaker For Swinebroad, The Real Estate Man.

MORE SALES FOR JULY.

Swinebroad, the Real Estate Man, gives us a report of his auction sales of land during the month of June. These were the sales that he advertised in his June catalogue; every farm was offered just as advertised and was sold to the entire satisfaction of the owners and the purchasers.

The report is as follows:

June 8th, for W. A. Rawlings, 150 acres in Marion County, for $7000.

June 12th, for E. M. Shelley, 65 acres in Boyle County, to J. H. Brannaman, at $300.00 per acre.

June 15th, for J. W. Higgins, 158.2 acres in Casey County, sold in three tracts to Luther Elliott 49.56 acres at $297.00 per acre; to Ray Elliott 36.38 acres at $181.00 per acre; to M. L. Elliott 72.27 acres at $263.24 per acre. Average per acre $256.30.

June 16th, 102 acres for H. D. Holtzclaw, in Lincoln county, to Oscar Holtzclaw at $125.00 per acre.

June 16th, for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crutcher, 140 acres in Lincoln county to Will Montgomery at $123.00 per acre.

June 17th, 210.6 acres in Lincoln county for H. D. Holtzclaw to R. I. Hubble at $115.00 per acre.

June 19th, the Rogers farm at Lebanon, Marion county, owned by G. R. Swinebroad and E. H. Dever, to Salem George and G. W. Hughes, 233.2 acres at $225.00 per acre, and 33.11 acres, sold for $250.00 per acre.

June 22nd, 267 1/2 acres in Marion County, for J. T. Lankford, to Rawlings Brothers, at $110.00 per acre.

June 26th, the land of G. R. Swinebroad at Danville in which unimproved land sold as high as $495.00 per acre. At this sale D. W. Mahan purchased 15.6 acres at $695.00 per acre; G. J. Eblen 3.79 acres at $420.00 per acre; L. C. King purchased 3.51 acres at $695.00 per acre and 3.62 acres at $600.00 per acre; C. R. Martin purchased 52.45 acres at $238.00 per acre, and the Board of Commissioners of the Institute for the Deaf bought 63.84 acres at $500.00 per acre.

This makes 7503 acres of land Swinebroad sold in June for $268,885.21, more than a quarter of a million of sales in one month. He has sold from the first of January to the first of July, 2989 acres for a total of $689,184.67, besides considerable property at private sales. Swinebroad and his assistants, W. E. Moss, R. H. Dever and his son George Swinebroad, are now preparing for their July sales. Write to them for a catalogue. Swinebroad is the only man in the business who does enough business to justify the issue of these catalogues and he is thus enabled to render the services which the public is looking for. Watch this paper for his next series of advertisements.

MRS. HATCHER

To Continue Auto Service.

Although she failed to secure the mail route service from Lancaster to Danville and return, it will be very gratifying to friends of Mrs. James Hatcher, to know that she will continue to give the same efficient and polite service to the traveling public and will carry passengers and packages every day as in the past. She is deeply grateful to her friends and the public in general for their liberal patronage in the past and hopes to have same in the future, promising every courtesy and attention, which she is so capable of doing. Anyone wishing auto service to any point, would do well to call Mrs. Hatcher.

BIG PRICE

For Aberdeen-Angus Cow.

Mr. A. T. Sanders sold last week to Mr. John M. Amon, one of his fine Aberdeen-Angus cows, known and registered, as "Black Cap H. L." for $3,500. She is one of the top notchers of this breed and Mr. Amon feels that he has purchased a bargain. Mr. Sanders also sold to Lebanon parties a weanling calf of the same breed, for $1,000.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

FRANCHISE.

To The People Of Lancaster, Kentucky.

At the time we purchased the electric light franchise we believed in good faith that it was valid and thought so up until a short time ago when we decided in good faith to apply to the City Council for an increase in rates under this franchise on account of the high cost of running the plant. When we constructed the plant the operating expenses for the amount of electricity now consumed, at the cost of coal, materials and labor at that time were about $12,443.50 annually. The operating expenses for the year beginning July 1, 1920, for the same amount of electricity, is estimated to be about $34,207.50, chiefly on account of the high cost of coal and the increase in the cost of labor as well as material of every kind.

Electric light companies everywhere are asking for and in many cases are being granted increases in rates, where they are operating under a valid franchise, and are giving notice that they must quit unless they get some relief on account of the enormous cost of coal and material. We believed at the time we made the application for an increase, and believe now, that the Council, being fair men, would have granted us an increase on account of this great difference in the cost of operation. We employed an attorney to draw up a supplemental contract under our existing franchise and he discovered that the franchise was void, and therefore, could not be legally amended, and this was the first time we ever had such an intimation. The matter has been taken before Judge Hardin, as well as the Court of Appeals, and both the Circuit Judge and the Court of Appeals have decided the franchise to be void because in conflict with section 164 of the Constitution of the State of Kentucky. When we found that our franchise was void we were like a person who might be in possession of a farm without any deed to it. No good business man would build valuable and lasting improvements on a piece of land to which he held no title, and likewise, good business prevented us from making valuable improvements under the franchise which gave us no title or rights to the use of the streets. We did not desire an increase of rates under a void franchise. We did not try to get out of the contract on a technicality, because it is absolutely void. We did not repudiate any contract because there was never any legal contract binding on the City to repudiate. The franchise was void from the beginning and gave to us no rights whatever as a franchise. The only course the law permits us to pursue when acting under a void franchise is to move and get out.

This is absolutely the only legal course open to us. Any one can see from the above figures that if we undertake to operate under the present rate we must soon go into bankruptcy.

In fact, we cannot raise money on a plant that is operating without a franchise. It has no legal existence and is known in law as a trespasser. We are willing to do anything we can to assist the City in solving the present difficulty and on account of the extreme high cost of coal and other materials we think it would be unjust to both the purchaser of a franchise and to the City to fix it for a long period of time. In two years time materials maybe much lower, or they may be much higher. No one can tell. We hope the City will be able to sell a short term franchise that will protect the City as well as be fair to the purchaser, and in this way permit the public to enjoy the privilege of using electricity at a price equal to its cost of production with a legitimate profit to those who may furnish it. And when prices become settled the City can sell a longer term franchise, if it so desires, at such rates as it deems just and fair. Adv. Bastin Brothers.

Went To The Doctor.

A man got out of his buggy and hitched his horse.

He didn't have a good hitch rope, so while he was gone this horse broke loose and tore his buggy and harness up.

When the man came back he found that his horse was gone.

Some one told him that there was a Harness Doctor at GOODLOE & WALKER BROTHERS STORE. All kinds of new harness hand made, also old harness repaired. The prices are right. See Ed Oaks.

MANAGER

EMPLOYED.

Mr. Tandy Quisenberry will Manage Garrard Tobacco Warehouse.

The directors of the Garrard Tobacco Warehouse at a meeting held last week in the offices of the company, employed Mr. Tandy Quisenberry of Louisville, who will serve as manager of the house during the next season's sales. Mr. Quisenberry comes very highly recommended being well acquainted with the various buyers throughout the country and is said to be an expert judge of tobacco. He is a genial whole soul fellow and will make friends rapidly with the growers throughout this and adjoining counties.

It will be very gratifying to the patrons of the Lancaster tobacco market to learn that the services of Mr. John Scott, has been secured as auctioneer for the next season and will be on the block during the sales at both of the local warehouses. John is one of the best in the country and these houses were wise and fortunate in securing his services.

"BUD" JAMES

Dies At Harrodsburg.

The death of "Bud" James at his home in Harrodsburg last week brought much regret among his friends here where he was so well known. He was a great lover of horses and many will remember him where he exhibited them at the various fairs throughout the state.

Concerning his death the Harrodsburg Herald says:

General regret was felt here at the passing of Mr. I. C. James, who died Wednesday morning from complications after a six months' confinement to his room. He was one of the best known men in this community and one of the best liked. He has been in the livery business here for about thirty-five years. He was a lover of good horses and in addition to his livery business he had a string of high-class animals and was a familiar figure at all the county fairs, as well as the blue grass fair at Lexington and the State Fair at Louisville, and was a frequent premium winner. A number of years ago he was in the old City Council and after the municipal government was changed to commission form he was elected on the Board of Commissioners. He was a generous, warm-hearted man and everybody was his friend. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Aaron James, his wife and her son, Mr. I. C. James, Jr., and a daughter, Miss Annie James, the child of a former marriage. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. H. Athey. The interment will be at Spring Hill.

Baptist Church

Fourth of July.

There will be a special fourth of July service at the Baptist Church Sunday. No Baptist can afford to miss this service, which will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. Beautiful songs, picturesque drills, and splendid recitations will be given by the young folks of our Sunday School. These programs are always entertaining, enjoyable and instructive, and this one is going to be one of the best ones we have had for some time.

The special evangelistic services at this church will begin Oct. 3rd, with the Rev. T. N. Compton D. D. doing the preaching. A full announcement about the meeting will be forthcoming soon.

To Keep American Ships on the Seas

For the first time since the Civil War we have a real merchant marine. It cost us $3,000,000,000 to get it.

The farmer, manufacturer, laborer—every American is interested in holding our position on the seas.

As a first step in this direction it is necessary to modify those articles of existing commercial treaties which have operated to thwart the upbuilding of our merchant marine.

By giving the notice of termination for which the several treaties provide.

This action is directed in the constructive Shipping Bill now before Congress.

Which declares it to be the policy of the United States "to do whatever may be necessary to develop and encourage" a merchant marine.

This policy deserves the support of every American. Lacking this support the present effort to maintain our merchant marine may suffer the fate of many ineffective attempts of the past.

Send for a copy of "For an American Merchant Marine."

Make Your Home a Cheerful Home

You can't expect folks to be happy and contented where the home is in half-darkness and permeated by the smell of smoky lamps. Every member of your family is entitled to all the bright electric light which city folks have. If somebody asked you to buy an expensive plant that simply furnished light and no more, you might have some good arguments against such a purchase, but when you think of a lighting plant that is also a plant capable of operating any and every small machine on your place, that is another matter.

Genco Light

is such a plant. In addition to being a perfect electric lighting plant, it has a pulley by which machines can be run while charging your batteries. When this is done, your lights cost practically nothing. Genco light is such a positive labor saver that owners figure that this power practically takes the place of farm help. It certainly does enable the help to do more; or less help to do the same work. Genco Light is not a luxury—it is a servant that will increase production and pay for itself in actual dollars and cents. You really owe it to yourself to call here with your wife and see this wonderful plant at work. May we expect you?

THORNHILL WAGONS

Made In the Heart of the Hardwood Region

DURING the past ten years the automobile, the manure and lime spreader occupied the time of many wagon makers. But Thornhill stuck to the wagon and to the farmer trade. Over rough mountain roads, through swamps, at logging camps, these wagons did duty daily.

Thus the fame of the Thornhill spread, and the demand grew steadily greater.

Tough Highland Hickory

Their plant is located in the very shadow of mighty forests of mountain hickory. The ground is hard—the climate severe. The wood has to fight for life. So it grows sturdy and strong—close-grained and tough—well nigh unbreakable. It has nearly twice the strength of hickory that grows in softer ground, which is usually brittle-brash. The white oak, growing under similar conditions, develops a similar toughness.

The oak and hickory are dried outdoors under shelter and kept there from three to five years—so piled that the air can circulate freely. The sap dries in it.

Some say their location in the heart of the hardwood region is the reason why they can build such a wear-proof wagon. And this is partly true. For good, tough oak and hickory are things no man can make.

But much is due to their modern labor-saving plant. Materials start at one end of the plant and come out a finished wagon at the other. Each man does but a single task, and he does that task to perfection.

A Clan of Master Builders

But to the men are due many of the Thornhill long-wearing, light-running features. Years ago they attracted to their plant the masters of wagon building. They asked these men for improvements, and the men who made them received their just reward.

Together they worked out more improvements than had ever been made in the twenty years that went before.

Let us show you a Thornhill and demonstrate the value of Thornhill construction.

FIND OUT JUST WHAT CAUSES YOUR RHEUMATISM

Then You Will Be Able to Treat It Intelligently.

The medical profession has not yet fully determined all of the causes of Rheumatism, though they are pretty well agreed on two points.

The first is, that the disease is more than a mere local trouble, that the pangs of pain come from a source that is far below the surface, and therefore it is not reasonable to expect any rational relief from a treatment that is locally applied and reaches only the surface.

When you realize the logic of this conclusion, you will see that you are really wasting your time and money if you are expecting any permanent relief from the use of liniments, lotions, and other locally applied treatment, which can only reach the surface, and have no effect whatever upon the origin of your trouble.

Any disease should be treated at its source, and especially one that causes as much suffering as Rheumatism. The only treatment worth while is one that will show progress toward getting at the source of the disease, and freeing the victim from its shackles.

The other point that the medical profession has agreed upon, is that some forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million, and until these germs are rooted from the blood, you can see how future blood treatment will be. In fact, you can use liniments by the gallon and never hope to reach the cause of your trouble.

So many people have found real permanent relief from their Rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. that its use is justified in practically every case. Certainly if your Rheumatism is due to a germ in the blood, as so many thousands of cases are, you should lose no time in beginning the use of S. S. S., because you can rely upon this fine old blood remedy to do you more good than any other treatment.

S. S. S. is beneficial in Rheumatism because it is such a thorough blood medicine. It cleanses the blood of all impurities, and eradicates the germs which cause Rheumatism. The wonderful results it has accomplished in other cases is proof of its great merit. S. S. S. has been on the market for more than fifty years and is sold by all druggists.

You are invited to write our medical department for full information and advice about the treatment of your own case, for which no charge is made. Address: Chief Medical Adviser, H. Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

Sunday—a day of rest. Do you make it such, or are you devising ways and means of swelling your profits during the week?

Sunday is a day of rest, for one reason, because the human mind requires a certain amount of relaxation without which it becomes weakened and confused and fails to function properly and to advantage. It was so intended by the Creator.

And where do you find that rest? Where do you obtain that spirit of repose which stimulates and rejuvenates the entire human fabric? Does the entire human fabric?

There are many ways and places but one is more beneficial than all others combined. That is your weekly visit to the church on Sunday morning, or evening, or both. Even if you hear not one word the minister says, the simple knowledge that you are in the sanctuary of the Lord casts a feeling of calmness, solemnity and repose over you which is good for the mind, the body and the soul.

A Louisiana legislator wants all men who are not married at the age of 25 to be sent to jail. That, at least, would solve the problem of the h. c. l. for gentlemen afflicted with that tired feeling.

A London writer says hens can be cured of the habit of eating eggs by filing the tip of the beak gently with the back of a knife for a time too tender for breaking the shell, and the habit is until near the quick. ## A HOSTAGE TO VANITY

By OTILLIA F. PFEIFFER

(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union)

It was vanity and opportunity that caused Muriel Dyson to fall into the temptation and error of her life. Roger Hird had invited her to the opera and for his sake she wished to appear at her best. It needed no art to enhance her natural beauty and gracefulness, but like every young girl, self adoration appealed to her and the chance of her life to particularly shine in the eyes of others lured her into a maze of trouble.

She had been the home teacher of little Mina and Paul Secrist, children of very wealthy parents, and both Mr. and Mrs. Secrist were kindly indulgent to her and allowed her to share in the best there was in the house. The parents were going away for a few days and Mrs. Secrist, who had learned of Roger's invitation, spoke pleasantly the morning of their departure.

"You are at liberty to wear my opera cloak tomorrow evening, Muriel, and any of my trinkets or jewelry that meet your fancy," she said.

"Oh, thank you," beamed the delighted Muriel, "you are too kind to me."

"I fear I am working against my own interest in encouraging Mr. Hird to some day steal you away from us," said Mrs. Secrist smilingly.

"Oh, I think there is no danger of that," responded the blushing Muriel, but secretly hoped so.

Everybody about the house idolized the charming girl who had a smile and a kind word for the humblest mental. They all exhibited interest and sympathy in her anticipated evening of enjoyment with the manly, handsome young fellow who was to escort her to the opera. All the afternoon the house-keeper and the nurse took charge of the children so that Muriel would have ample leisure to prepare and dress for the occasion.

About dusk Muriel went into Mrs. Secrist's room of which she had been left the key. She was enchanted to think of the generous invitation to use what articles of jewelry she liked and a modest neck pin and a ring with a neat setting were chosen and worn with complacent happiness. Pleased and satisfied with her choice, Muriel was about to go downstairs when chancing to open a drawer, her eyes were fixed upon an article of adornment that fairly fascinated her. In enraptured ecstasy Muriel feasted her eyes on the beautiful necklace that looked up at her from its nest of satin.

"It is the lovely one that Mrs. Secrist wears on grand occasions, so precious and envied," she murmured. "How careless to leave such a valuable belonging in an unlocked drawer. Oh, you beauties! How does it look on me? Oh, if I dared—if I dared!"

She thrilled and trembled at the suggestion of what a rare three hours pleasure she could have from wearing this marvel of worth and beauty. Her breath came quick as she gazed upon her reflection in the mirror. How proud Roger would be of her! For once she could pose as a grand lady. Indeed, yes, she dared. Where was the harm? She would return it safely and no one would be the wiser.

"You make one think of some royal queen," Roger whispered to her as removing her wraps at the opera house she suggested the acme of royal opulence. Muriel was in a fervent glow of delight all that evening. The tender parting words of Roger rewarded her for looking so lovely. She ran up the stairs to her room satisfied, jubilant, perfectly happy, and then—

"The necklace! It's gone!" fell from her appalled lips.

Well might the words almost scream from her ashen lips. Well might she quiver and reel. She sank to a chair gasping for breath. A cold horror came into her face. Then she ran down the stairs through the vestibule even out to the curb, looking everywhere, returning sick at heart, weeping in despair that seemed to shroud the world in darkness. She restored the opera cloak to its wonted cabinet and stole to her bed feeling guilty as some thief.

She passed a restless night. In the morning sending word to the house-keeper that she was ill. Roger called, to go away anxious and desponding, for she would not see him. What would Mrs. Secrist say at the loss of her priceless possession? How could she atone for this reckless dalliance with vanity at such a frightful cost?

Muriel dreaded the hour when confession must come. She shrank down among the pillows the second morning when she heard Mrs. Secrist in the hall solicitously inquiring about her.

"The poor dear!" sounded the sweetly sympathetic tones, "I must console and nurse her. Tell the house to be very quiet until our dear is quite well again."

"Oh, Mrs. Secrist! the necklace!" burst forth Muriel as the lady entered the room, and then she was dumb as her startled eyes fell upon the necklace in Mrs. Secrist's hand.

"Yes, I found it caught in the lining of my opera cloak. It is only the replica, you know, worn for ordinary occasions. The real necklace is at my banker's. Why, my love—quick! quick!" screamed Mrs. Secrist. "Miss Muriel has fainted away."

It was to arouse sobbing out in the loving arms of the kind-hearted lady the wretched story of her two days of dread and sorrow, a hostage to vanity.

The girls of the period dot the landscape o'er.

With the elimination of Carranza the Mexican government appears eager to win the friendship of the United States, and the introduction of much needed American capital into that strife ridden country. There is a way. If the Mexicans care to pursue it. Make American life and American investments as safe south of the Rio Grande as they are north of it, and recompense Americans for the losses they have sustained in the past. When that is done America will believe in the sincerity of Mexico, but until then all protestations of friendship must be taken with a liberal application of salt.

The W. C. T. U. jarred the best lightful ladies will be doomed to many a jar themselves before they succeed in forcing a system of scien-of this country. You can't make love by resolution any more than you can prevent an old buck from making wife.

Astronomers at Harvard university tell us that about 200,000 years ago a small star collided with a dark nebula, the friction causing a great conflagration, or flareup. This illumination, according to the astronomers, has been traveling through space toward us at the rate of 186,000 miles a second, and is just beginning to be noted through the most powerful telescopes. Now what are you going to do about it?

Mrs. Harding, wife of the republican presidential nominee, started feminine tongues to moving by wearing a pair of frayed gloves after her return home from the convention.
Now if the better half of the democratic nominee can be persuaded to appear in public with a pair of ripped stockings the feminine fireworks will be so illuminating we men will have amusement enough to last throughout the campaign.

Don't worry over a little thing like having your sugar rationed to you again. We humble individuals should do nothing to interfere with those amiable gentlemen who so delight in exporting enormous quantities of sugar to Europe at stupendous profits to themselves. For how else can they get richer quicker?

The Fourth is a day of joy to the small boy with a bunch of firecrackoften one of regret that he can not exchange places with the boy.

And now it will be quite the correct thing for all sorts of people without brains to inquire into the mental capacity of our respected candidates for the presidency.

ance.

The splendid programme provided by the Redpath Chautauqua this season for Lancaster is very pleasing to the patrons, guarantors, and friends of this enterprise in Garrard county.

They feel sure that those who attend this year will be repaid twice over the cost of the season tickets which are selling rapidly. The management asks that those who have pledged for season tickets get them at the banks or drug stores or ladies furnishing stores so that the total cash on hand from the sale of tickets may be checked up by noon tomorrow.

The friendly feeling exhibited by all classes of the community to this great educational and musical entertainment is encouraging to those who have it in charge. Parents are espe-

Big Circus Coming

When the circus comes to town it creates a "powerful" lot of excitement, as they say down south, and the aforesaid excitement commence for the small boy and other little folks about the time the first car containing the young men who post works of art upon the bill boards, arrives. "The Circus is coming!" is the delightful shout of the small urchin, as he gazes upon the big bills that announce the date of the great canvass entertainment, which is to be in LANCASTER, on Tuesday, July 13th.

As time flits on apace, and circus day draws near, the enthusiasm of the small boy is shared by his elders, and when the circus comes, his father and mother, and sisters and cousins and aunts, eleven or seven of them, will all go just to take that small boy to the circus. They may, however, be excused when it is considered that the Rhoda Royal Big Railroad Show is coming with an aggregation of ring attractions and great zoological collection from the jungles and forests of five continents. This is a large three-ring circus, a monster menagerie, which, by the way, is entirely distinct and separate from the wild beast show, which consists of all kinds of savage brutes, exhibited in startling performances in a huge steel-barred circular cage, the same as seen in European capitals, New York and Chicago, at the Atlanta Exhibition. Then there is a real Roman hippodrome, and a world of wonders which space forbids a detailed necount of here. All in all the Royal shows are held to be the most surprising and pleasing unification of all that is new and wonderful in the circus world. There will be a grand street parade, and the tent will be pitched at the Bastin Field, Lexington Street.

DISTRICT MEETING Of African M E Church

Danville, Held Here.

Delightful Program Rendered.

The 32nd Session of Danville District Meetings of the Kentucky Annual Conference of African M. E.
Church, convened at Lancaster Ky.,
June 22-25th, 1920, at St. Andrews
A. M. E. church, of which the energetic and faithful Rev. A. W. Johnson is pastor.

Rev. J. W. Frazier Presiding Elder opened with appropriate remarks.

Rev. W. C. Orten was elected secretary and Mrs. A. L. Moore, assistant. The Ministerial Institute was held the first day. The papers were well prepared and instructive.

The Welcoming Exercises were of a high order, and the citizens putting the same into action left room only for praise.

Rev. Frazier, instead of his usual Annual address, read Scripture lessons Romans X and XII Chapters also I Tim IV. He gave fatherly advice and called attention to what was expected of ministers as to feeding of the people from the Word of God.
He said "They must have an estimation of themselves, but it must be a Christian estimation." The paper on the subject, "What are the fruits of Salvation?" was read by Rev. E.
Coleman, Jr. It was adopted as sense of Ministerial Institute and ordered sent for publication in Christian Recorder, Southern Christian Record and A. M. E. Review.

During the meetings sermons of power, filled with the spirit eloquently delivered were preached by Revs., W. H. Crowders, A. Pope, J. T. Parris and Rev. C. W. Allison, Presiding
Elder of Lexington District. Rev.
A. T. Clark, Supt. A. C. E. Leagues of Kentucky, Annual conference, was present and held an interesting session for the leagues of district.

Mrs. I. H. Miller District Supt., of S. S. called the convention to order the second day. The young people showed a great religious awakening.
The papers read were well prepared being both interesting and instructive.
Dr. E. W. Overstreet of Stanford and Bro. McClelland Cunningham of Lancaster were elected Lay delegates to Kentucky Annual Conference which meets at Harrodsburg, Ky.

He Was Proprietor Of The Town.

Not long ago, the story told, a traveling salesman visited a certain small town and sold the proprietor of its general store an order of jewelry. When the jewelry arrived it was not as represented and the merchant consequently returned it. But the wholesale house solicited an attempt to collect the bill and drew a sight draft on the merchant from the local bank, which returned the draft unendorsed. The wholesaler then wrote to the postmaster about the financial standing of the merchant and the postmaster replied confidentially that it was O. K. By return mail the wholesaler requested him to collect the account and they received the following reply: "The undersigned is the merchant on whom you attempted to palm off your worthless goods. The undersigned is president and owner of the bank to which you sent your sight draft.
The undersigned is the postmaster to whom you wrote, and the undersigned is the lawyer whose services you sought to obtain for your nefarious business. If the undersigned were not also pastor of the church at this place he would tell you to go to hell.

sip, except when his wife is relating the latest piece of scandal about his

To The Citizens of Lan- caster, Ky.

Honorable Mayor, City Council and People of Lancaster, Ky.:

Whereas the franchise now held by us is void by reason of being in conflict with the State Constitution, and Whereas we have no franchise for operating our plant in the City of Lancaster, Ky., because the same is void as aforesaid, the City Council of the City of Lancaster, Ky., and the public generally are hereby notified that we will on August 1st, 1920, or as soon thereafter as practical, move all our poles and electrical equipment from the streets of the city of Lancaster, Ky.

This notice is given as a legal notice, as we understand that reasonable notice must be given before we can remove said property and discontinue said plant.

We are willing to do anything we can to co-operate with the city in securing a franchise for the purpose of furnishing electric light and power to the citizens of the city, but we can not continue it further without expensive additional equipment, and thus we can not do at the present rates and without a legal franchise protecting us in our rights.

Done this April 26th, 1920.

Respectfully submitted,

BASTIN BROTHERS,

By H. V. Bastin.

Eton, on East Maxwell street. The bride wore her traveling suit of blue with hat to match and after the wedding she and the bridegroom left to make their home in Wisconsin. The bride is the daughter of the well-known Baptist minister, Rev. Walter Taylor and Mrs. Taylor at Richmond, and Mr. Poindexter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poindexter, of Danville.—Lexington Herald.

"Back Home."

L. J. Stieford the popular harness maker is home again with Haselden Brothers, and you will find him fully equipped with special machinery etc. and all equipment for the making of harness, and all kinds of strap work, and general repairing, and no one needs an introduction to him, for all are familiar with his work and know it to be the best that money can buy.

You want a good set of wagon breeding, and we are headquarters for this work, and we are prepared to furnish you with up-to-the-minute harness of all kinds and you will make no mistake in calling on us, as our entire harness department will be under his supervision and he will also assist us as general salesman, and we solicit your business.

Haselden Brothers.

Christian Church Notes.

The electric fans were in use last Sunday for the second time this season. They will be used throughout the summer at the Sunday services and at prayer meeting as the weather may demand. They are proving quite satisfactory, rendering the auditorium as pleasant as the "shade of the old apple tree" even on hot days.

The Christian Endeavorers had an outing at Dix river last Thursday. Some intentionally tried the water and some unintentionally, all finding it fine of course, while others amused themselves in divers ways. All enjoyed the bountiful picnic dinner. Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. J. A. Amon, Mrs. Samuel Haselden, Mrs. J. R. Haselden, Mrs. W. S. Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bourland chaperoned the crowd.

Mrs. J. A. Tucker's Sunday School class will give a social at the church this Thursday evening. Refreshments will be served and a fine time is anticipated by these young ladies and gentlemen and their guests.

A Teacher Training Class has been organized in the Sunday School and will begin work next Sunday. The New Standard Teacher Training Course is very interesting and the work ought to prove very helpful to all who will take it. The class will meet at the Sunday School hour.

The services last Sunday were well attended, the audience at preaching services being quite large. The Sunday School attendance was larger than the preceding Sunday but smaller than it was a few Sundays ago. All members are urged to be faithful in attendance at Sunday School and church in order that the proverbial summer slump may be avoided.

THE ROBERT GULLEY HOME TRACT OF 41 ACRES, WELL IMPROVED SAND STONE LAND AT

AUCTION

In Three Tracts or as a whole, on LONG TIME payments, "the kind to buy",

Saturday, JULY 3rd, 1920, 10 A. M.

LOCATION:—4 miles from Lancaster, Ky., on Rural Route, close to school, churches and with each tract fronting the Buckeye pike; grand view and excellent neighborhood.

ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE FARM ESTATES IN GARRARD COUNTY.

IMPROVEMENTS: Attractive two story frame residence with lights, and other modern up-to-date equipments, every out building, including garage, all in first class condition; one large extra good stock barn, one newly built tobacco barn, one good three room house.

WHO KNOWS THE VALUE OF GOOD SANDSTONE LAND WELL LOCATED AND IMPROVED LIKE THIS AND IN SMALL TRACTS TOO?

TRACT NO. 1—Consists of about 15 acres, including the large dwelling and large stock barn, garage, fine garden, good orchard, beautiful shade trees, strong land, plenty of water and a beautiful place to live, a home complete this is.

TRACT NO. 2—Consists of about 14 acres of mostly old blue grass tobacco land, with three room house and newly built tobacco barn, fronting the pike. If you can make the first payment, the land will do the rest, rented out.

TRACT NO. 3—Consists of about 11 acres with long pike frontage, no buildings, but excellent building sites, lays in a square, and is ready for any crop, including tobacco or hemp. Buy it for a future home site it will earn its way in the meantime. Any man with a small amount of capital and the right determination, with a home like this before him, with the long time payments offered, should grasp the opportunity.

"Oh, for one hour of youthful joy, bring back my 20th Spring—I would rather be a bright haired boy than reign a gray haired king."

WILL HISTORY REPEAT HERSELF?

DEMONSTRATED:—A wagon load of hay will be placed in the barn yard, sprinkled with 50 quarts of government whiskey, to be used (in medical purposes only). Crowd to remain in yard while hay is being prepared, all those who are watering at the mouth will please stand at the lower side of the yard, those who are not watering have your salivary glands prized open with a crow bar.

Women whose husbands are a little breechy please bring your mule yokes along, see that your husbands have on snubbers to avoid any shock when the bars are dropped promptly at twelve.

After eating the hay please do not lick the paint from the wagon.

It will be regarded as the height of impropriety to butt while eating. Men will not be expected to return for a "knife" or a "hose supporter", this will be cared for. Should it become necessary for any suffragette to go to the barn yard for her husband who has not returned, hitch ropes will be furnished and if by mistake she should get one of the animals that belong to Hill and Bradshaw, the generous offer is made by the owners to exact cost and carriage only, and in the absence of freight bill, that which would be reasonably fair. The Grass Widows Club of Garrard county will sing "Some Day I'll Wander Back."

37 ACRES OF GOOD SANDSTONE LAND AT AUCTION

The thirty-seven acre farm, known as the "old J. N. Teater home-place" near Buckeye, will be sold publicly on

Saturday, July 3rd,

AT 2:30 P. M.

The place lies within one half mile of Buckeye, right on the pike, near a good school and near a good church. The land is exceedingly fertile, having been in blue grass for forty-seven years until last year. Every foot of it tobacco land and all of it ideal building sites.

A large tobacco barn is one of the improvements and will hold four acres of tobacco. Well watered and fenced. It will be sold in four lots and then as a whole, the highest price realized being accepted.

Immediate possession of the lots will be given and possession of the land will be given January 1st, 1921.

TERMS will be very liberal, being sold on five years time.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Lancaster.

Around all day with an aching back, can't rest at night. Enough to make any one "give out." Doan's Kidney Pills are helping thousands. Ask your neighbors! They are for kidney backache! And other kidney ills. Here is Lancaster proof of their merit.

Mrs. Joe Turner, Trotten Ave., says: "A few years ago my kidneys got out of order and I had backaches. I felt dull and languid and tired easily. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. A friend told me of Doan's Kidney Pills and I bought some at Stormes' Drug Store. They rid me of the backache and put my kidneys in good order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Turner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

You Can, If You Will.

Grit and perseverance can overcome almost any handicap of nature.

Near Bloomington, Ill., in the heart of the corn belt, the late spring threatened serious losses to the farmers because of their inability to do their planting in time to reap a harvest. To overcome this they have been planting corn far into the night, using searchlights to dispel the darkness.

In the outskirts of Chicago there is a young married man who works in his garden until 10 and 11 o'clock at night, using a carbide lantern for illumination.

Another man whose days are also fully occupied graded and terraced the grounds around his new house at night by the light of the searchlights on his automobiles and the electric light on his front porch.

This is but an illustration of the ingenuity that is being brought into play all over the country, a trait which seems to predominate in American people.

It only requires a little ingenuity, a little determination and reasonable amount of perseverance to achieve success in the sea of failure these days.

Where there is a will there is always a way, but the way is of little value without the driving force of will power to pursue it to the point of achievement.

Isn't It True?

If a few of our most prominent citizens should propose that all business be suspended for a day, and that everybody get a pick or a shovel or some other implement and all turn out in a grand cleanup of the town, what would be the result?

It would go with a whoop, over the top and beyond. It would be a lark, and everybody would be happy and jolly and work like a hero.

But suppose the same gentlemen should propose that all business be suspended for a day and that all male citizens devote the day to cleaning up their own respective yards and other property. What would be the result in that case?

Not the same, by long odds.

Possibly a few would take the suggestion seriously, but a majority would pass it by with a jest or a smile.

It would be no lark to work alone, but only hard toil in the hot sun.

There would be no top to go over, no spectators on hand to applaud, and no dazzling in the spotlight of publicity.

It would be foolish to waste an entire day in such a humdrum manner, when the old yard looks fairly well as it is.

Now isn't that true?

England is reported as profoundly appreciative of a gift of $5,000,000 from the Rockefeller foundation for purposes of medical research. She ought to be. We'd whoop with joy and promise any old kind of a research if such a sum found its way around this shop.

Washington announces that an embargo is to be placed on the exportation of sugar in order to relieve the shortage said to exist in that staple article. It is time for an embargo, for the enormous quantity of four hundred and forty million pounds were shipped abroad from January 1st to May 27th. No wonder the prices has reached a point where economy almost demands a choice between sugar and shoes.

Notice, will you, that in the selection of candidates the views of the women are very carefully considered. She goes to the conventions, makes speeches, gives her opinions of the planks to be incorporated in the platform, and gives the impression generally that without her good will no candidate can be successful at the polls. The days are past when women sit meekly in the background and obey the dictates of their lord and master. She is some lord and some master herself now.

A slight subluxation of a vertebra in this part of the spine is the cause of so-called throat trouble, neuralgia, pain in the shoulders and arms, goitre, nervous prostration, la grippe, dizziness, bleeding from nose, disorder of gums, catarrh, etc.

The arrow head marked No. 3 locates the part of the spine wherein subluxations will cause so-called bronchitis, felons, pain between the shoulder blades, rheumatism of the arms and shoulders, hay fever, writers' cramp, etc.

A vertebral subluxation at this point causes so-called nervousness, heart disease, asthma, pneumonia, tuberculosis, difficult breathing, other lung troubles, etc.

Stomach and liver troubles, enlargement of the spleen, pleurisy and a score of other troubles, so-called, are caused by subluxations in this part of the spine, sometimes so light as to remain unnoticed by others except the trained Chiropractor.

Here we find the cause of so-called gall stones, dyspepsia of upper bowels, fevers, shingles, hiccup, worms, etc.

Bright's disease, diabetes, floating kidney, skin disease, boils, eruptions and other diseases, so-called, are caused by nerves being pinched in the spinal openings at this point.

Regulations of such troubles as so-called appendicitis, peritonitis, lumbago, etc., follow Chiropractic adjustments at this point.

Why have so-called constipation, rectal troubles, sciatica, etc., when Chiropractic adjustments at this part of the spine will remove the cause?

A slight subluxation here will likewise produce so-called sciatica, together with many "diseases" of pelvis and lower extremities.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodor's Black-Draught. In fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theodor's the original and genuine. E 78

250 ACRES OF LAND

FOR SALE PRIVATELY BY THE UNDERSIGNED OWNER.

This farm is midway between Bryantsville and Buena Vista, Garrard County, Kentucky, 1 1/2 miles from either.

Will sell either with or without crops and this is as good allaround farm as can be found. See the crops of tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, clover and timothy now growing and compare them with others. They speak for themselves.

The land lays as well as any land and if a man desires can have a 1 1/2 mile track as good as the Lexington race track, and will suit any race horse man. It is just rolling enough to drain well. It has on it a fine fish lake, several cemented pools and concrete tanks all fed by never failing springs—drouth or no drouth—distributed to every part of the place, and my stock gets nothing but pure, clean, running water, worth thousands of dollars to any good farm, and I would not have one without plenty of good water.

It has also a splendid modern 8-room frame residence, 2 twelve-foot halls above and below, bath room, pantry, and large wardrobes built in each room, a good servant's room in yard, garage, smoke, poultry and ice house, a 25x25 foot barn for cows and family horses.

Also one large stock barn and 300 barrel double crib and 1200 bushel wheat granary above. One 12 acre tobacco barn and have housed from 3 to 5 acres in stock barn.

Also a nice new weather-boarded, three room cottage and necessary buildings with fine water, well located.

Would prefer selling as a whole, but is susceptible to cutting into one-half dozen farms with splendid building sites and good outlets, with water for each and will sell to suit all purchasers as to quantity and easy terms. Convenient to Graded school and all churches. I have lived here, perfectly contented, since 1863, and would not now part with this home, but for my health and age. Neither of my two daughters having married a farmer—one a doctor and the other an insurance man—and both living in the West, I feel it my duty to spend my few remaining days with them. In buying from me you will have no commissions to pay. See me at once on the premises. I mean business.

Relates Reason Of Financial Stress.

People Bought Liberty Bonds For Patriotic Reasons, But Do Not Feel Like Working, Saving And Paying For Them.

Why Liberty Bonds are low and prices of commodities are high was authoritatively explained recently before the Academy of Political Science by R. C. Leffingwell, assistant secretary of the Treasury.

At this critical moment, he said, many of our people have turned gamblers and wasters. For when living and high thinking was substituted wasting and loitering. We enjoy high living while we grumble at the high cost of living—silk stockings and shirts for the poor, of automobiles for men of small means, of places for the profiteer and the plutocrat.

"For five years," he continued, "the world has been consuming more than it produced, living upon its capital and the governments of the world have been issuing evidences of indebtedness to represent the world's destroyed. This has caused world inflation of prices.

"When they were issued, no one could foresee the probable course of the market for Liberty Bonds and Victory Notes in the future with any degree of confidence. A year ago, it was freely predicted by financial authorities that Victory Notes would shortly go to a premium and that Liberty Bonds would be selling at or near par within a year or two.

"Everyone knows why these sanguine expectations have not been realized. With the armistice and still more after the Victory Loan, our people underwent a great reaction. Those who had bought Liberty Bonds as a matter of patriotism but not as investors began to treat their bonds as so much spending money. Those who had obeyed the injunction to borrow and buy Liberty Bonds ignored the complementary injunction to save and pay for them.

"In my judgment, the present depreciation of Liberty Bonds on the market is due chiefly to the fact that of the 20,000,000 Americans who patriotically subscribed during the period of the war, large numbers have not been willing or able to exercise such control over their personal expenditures as would enable them to retain their bonds after the cessation of hostilities. Liberty Bonds, like other bonds, are subject to market influences, including the law of supply and demand, and their market quotations have declined in consequence of the failure of the great investing public to save in proportion to the enormous expenditures of capital during and since the war.

"Many patriotic people bought Liberty Bonds and Notes under the impulse of patriotism who have been unwilling since the war was over to continue to lend their money to the Government and have forced their holdings on the market more rapidly than others could save funds to invest with consequent depreciation in market prices. The remedy for this condition is for people to work and save, to keep their holdings of Liberty Bonds as investments and purchase additional government securities with their savings.

"As the Treasury views it, the Liberty Bond problem is chiefly one of quantity. Unfortunately many holders of Liberty Bonds who patriotically subscribed for and held them during the war have since regarded them as so much spending money and thrown them on the market.

"People generally have been spending money freely and saving relatively little, so that there has not been sufficient capital saved to overcome the pressure upon the market from those who bought bonds as patriots but not as investors. I think most competent judges, however, believe that the equilibrium has about reached between sales and purchases of Liberty Bonds and that the Liberty Bond market will soon turn upward; government bonds, in fact, could not well be made more attractive than they are at present market prices.

"The easy Liberty Bonds and Victory Notes are depreciated today is not found in the terms of the bonds and notes; it is not to be found in the interest rate or in the tax exemptions; it is to be found in the fact that the demands for capital exceed the supply and the demands exceed the supply because the whole world has been living beyond its income for five years.

THE AMERICAN LEGION OF KY,

Will Hold Second Annual Convention Sept 3rd and 4th, In Louisville Ky.

September 3rd and 4th has been designated by the State Executive Committee of the American Legion of Kentucky as the time for the Second Annual State Convention of the ex-service men and women of the Great War.

Announcement is made from State Headquarters that representation will be determined by the numbers. Each post will have one representative and one alternate and one additional representative for each one hundred members whose State and National dues have been paid.

There are one hundred and thirty-two local posts in the State. Each post will send its delegation with instructions as to the sentiment prevailing among the Legionaries of its vicinity regarding the big issues now facing the Legion and all ex-service men. Local posts are urged to see that their officers make returns for all new members in order that the post may secure its proper representation at the convention.

All ex-service men and women are urged to realize the importance of cooperating with the Legionaries of their community in swelling local post membership, in keeping foremost the ideals and principles of the greatest organization of veterans in the history of the United States; and in seeing that the values and sentiments of the ex-service men and women of the county and community are properly recorded at the next State Convention. If you have a key, join the Legion and let it be known in the right sort of way. If you have an idea that you think the Legion ought to do something which up to this time has been overlooked, join the Legion and get up and "speak out at meeting."

A great civilian and military organization welcomes your advice and cooperation and urges that you do your full duty today even as you did it during the war. No ex-service man holding an honorable discharge can afford to let it be known in later years that he stood aside and failed to join his "buddies" in the work of reconstruction.

Election of State officers, Committee men and delegates to represent the Department of Kentucky at the National Convention to be held in Cleveland, September 27th will be one of the orders of business at the State Convention. The Legion attitude toward Adjusted Compensation, popularly termed a Bonus, will also be one of the live topics before the Convention. Also propaganda and activities, punishment of draft dodgers and slackers and other matters of vital interest to all ex-service men and women will be discussed and delegates to the Cleveland Convention will be given their instructions according to the sentiment of the ex-service men and women of Kentucky as expressed by their delegates on the floor of the State Convention.

All ex-service men and women regardless of whether they served in France or in this country or whether they had the title of Major General or buck private in the rear rank are eligible to membership and all have an equal voice in determining the policies of the Legion.

The New Motor Law.

Every driver of an automobile and every garage in Kentucky should cut out the following provisions of the new motor law and paste them up where they will be seen and remembered:

On Thursday, June 17th, the new motor law of Kentucky went into effect. This bill is an improvement on preceding bills in many particulars, and several of its provisions should have special attention.

The new bill makes it illegal to have a cutout so connected as to permit of its operation from the driver's seat. It provides that every car must be equipped with a good and sufficient muffler and makes the use of the cutout on a public highway unlawful. It is to be hoped that this provision will be strictly enforced and that it will be of assistance in making an end of the nuisance of those drivers who bustle north and south and east and west in utter indifference to all but themselves, making noises like a perpetual Fourth of July.

The new law also has stringent provisions as to the use of glaring head lights. It forbids headlights throwing rays higher than forty-two inches from the surface of the road seventy-five feet ahead and, more than this, it provides a punishment for dealers to sell automobiles with headlights not in accordance with the law. We would especially call the attention of all automobile dealers to this provision and the provision making it unlawful to arrange a cutout so that it may be operated from the driver's seat.

The law provides for new signals on the part of automobile drivers as follows:

Arm straight out—turning in the direction pointed to.

Arm pointed upward—turning in opposite direction.

Arm pointed downward—stopping or suddenly checking speed.

It is required that signals shall be given whenever a driver starts from the curb, changes his course, or makes a stop which could reasonably be said to affect traffic.

There is a new provision as to the right of way. Where there are no traffic officers stationed, the drivers shall yield the right of way at intersections to vehicles approaching from the right. This is of importance in that it supercedes the old provision that vehicles going east and west should have the right of way.

There are also new speed provisions. Passenger cars may not exceed fifteen miles per hour in the business portion of the city, twenty miles per hour in the residence portion, and thirty miles per hour in the country.

These are the chief provisions of the new law, and it is the hope of everyone that the law will be strictly enforced.
